

New Homestay Families

Some questions to consider:

- What made you consider offering Homestay for Macleans International students?
- Have you thought about how you could best help a student settle into your family?
- What sort of expectations do you have of one of our students?
- Have you had any experience providing a home to International students before?
- Have you thought how you might deal with communication difficulties?
- What kinds of concerns do you think you would communicate to the school?
- Who will have the most contact or offer the most support to the student within your family?
- How do you think the other people in your home will react to having a student come to live here?
- What kind of support do you expect from the school?
