

MACLEANS COLLEGE CAREERS DEPARTMENT

Useful Websites for Career Research:

Macleans Career Central:

Log in to your account for the calendar of events in school and outside. Set up your profile, use career resources and tools, record your plans and research, put together your CV. Take a Bulls-Eye quiz.

Macleans College Careers Page: Links and information sheets about:

NZ Universities, NZ Polytechnics, Overseas Universities, Scholarships, CV Writing, Other useful websites.

Careers New Zealand:

Learn about your options at school and beyond.

Seek: Job search employment site.

No Major Drama:

Complete a quiz, learn about Majors for Bachelor degrees at New Zealand universities.

Recommended School Subjects:

Note: Required subjects are essential for a particular degree, they are needed to gain entry.

Recommended or preparation subjects are those that are useful but not required to gain entry.

What can I do with my degree?

Skills gained, potential jobs, career options, graduate profiles and destinations for different majors.

The information from these three universities is particularly well presented for the career areas and major subjects that they offer. It is relevant to similar study at any university.

Vocational Pathways:

Plan a course leading to careers in: Primary Industries, Service Industries, Creative Industries, Social & Community Services, Manufacturing & Technology or Construction & Infrastructure, Trades and Apprenticeships.

Health Careers: Information and videos about clinical and non-clinical careers in the health industry.

Engineering, Technology, Digital Technology & Science: Explore study options and careers.